

3. Delegation of Responsibility	An employee shall not be eligible for continuation in the transitional return-to-work program if one (1) of the following determinations is made: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Employee cannot perform the assigned transitional temporary work assignment. 2. Employee will be unable to return to his/her pre-injury occupation with or without reasonable accommodations within a reasonable period of time. The work offered to an eligible employee shall be productive work that will advance the interests of the school district. The Superintendent or designee shall establish a transitional return-to-work program and develop administrative regulations to implement Board policy. The Superintendent or designee(s) shall oversee the school district's workers' compensation program, including the transitional return-to-work program, coordinating the efforts of appropriately involved school district staffpersons. The Superintendent or designee shall determine, at his/her discretion, if a transitional temporary work assignment will be offered to an eligible employee. When the interactive process, required by the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA), is going to be engaged in, the Superintendent or designee shall engage the solicitor or special labor counsel. The Superintendent or designee shall ensure that school district staff responsible for the transitional return-to-work program shall receive appropriate training on a periodic basis from legal counsel with expertise in the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), ADA, workers' compensation and labor relations. The training shall include information on the interaction of the transitional return-to-work program and applicable laws, contracts, collective bargaining agreements, benefit/compensation plans, and Act 93 Agreement.
4. Guidelines	The transitional return-to-work program and Board policy shall be implemented in a manner that does not conflict with applicable laws, contracts or collective bargaining agreements. The work offered to the employee will be within restrictions set forth by the medical care provider. Provisions of any applicable collective bargaining agreement shall be followed if there is a conflict between this policy and any such provisions. Any transitional return-to-work program may be adjusted and/or altered based on specific language of an applicable Act 93 plan, it being understood that such program and Board policy are inherent managerial prerogatives.

Nothing in this policy shall be construed as requiring that a transitional temporary work assignment be provided to an eligible employee or that the essential functions of any job be eliminated. Transitional temporary work assignments are intended as a transitional opportunity to assist an injured employee to return to his/her pre-injury occupation with or without reasonable accommodations.

The development of a transitional return-to-work assignment shall occur in coordination with the employee's medical provider(s).

Duration Of Modified Duty Program

1. Participation in the transitional return-to-work program is not intended to be for an unlimited duration. The program is intended to be of a temporary duration enabling an applicable employee reasonable time to rehabilitate and return to their full duty assignment or to secure another regular position where they can perform the essential functions of the job.
2. Participation in the transitional return-to-work program shall not exceed nine (9) months, unless an exception is granted by the Board. Exceptions will only be granted when it is expected that the individual's return to a regular full-duty assignment is imminent.
3. This program in no way affects the employee's entitlement to benefits under workers' compensation laws as they apply within the state.
4. At its discretion, the school district reserves the right to place employees at any time in regular job assignments within their classification where they can perform the essential functions of the job.
5. The school district may terminate an employee's participation in the transitional return-to-work program at any time when an employee fails to meet the program requirements or when, in the opinion of the school district, continued participation is not practical.

Discipline For Noncompliance

Progressive disciplinary actions may be taken against any employee who fails to observe the provisions of the applicable Act 93 Plan or the District's policies, procedures and/or regulations pertaining to the transitional return-to-work program.
