Brighter Financial Futures (dba PennCFL) is proud to announce that Nolan Baumert of Line Mountain School District, who worked under the leadership of Karrie Bowman, was a winner in our Personal Budgeting competition.

The competitions are held in the classroom, both county-wide and state-wide. Nolan finished in 2nd place in the Personal Budgeting Challenge in Dauphin County.

The program is generously sponsored by Mid Penn Bank.

For more than 150 years, Mid Penn Bank has been a staple of the community, providing comprehensive financial solutions for individuals and businesses through personalized service and up-to-date products. Whether you visit one of their many financial centers across Pennsylvania or connect with them through online banking, you will see that their top priority is building relationships with their customers and contributing to the vitality of the communities they serve.

The Pennsylvania Council on Financial Literacy (PennCFL) exists to prepare the next generation to rise up! Many in society today suffer financially due to the lack of financial management skills & a “minimum wage” mindset. We strive to change the future by offering all Pennsylvania students in grades K - 12 with Personal Finance education, a Stock Market & Personal Budgeting game, along with Entrepreneurship skills that will help them thrive in the workforce & in life.

PennCFL is a 501(c)3 organization and approved by Pennsylvania’s Department of Community & Economic Development as an Educational Improvement Organization. The PennCFL competitions and programs result in over 20,000 student registrations in Pennsylvania. Training and support are provided to hundreds of teachers. We showcase exceptional talent from business, education and government.

Our entrepreneurship program, Dream-Learn-Pitch, allows students to learn through our online curriculum, at our entrepreneurship conferences or independently with their teachers. Students can upload their Elevator Pitch to win prizes up to $10,000 and additionally, up to $40,000 in college scholarships. See www.dreamlearnpitch.org/terms--conditions for details.
