

A critical thinking, hands-on mathematics challenge for high school students

A program of The Actuarial Foundation

Modeling the Future Challenge

Learn about one of the most exciting new technologies and present your own mathematical models describing how autonomous vehicles will revolutionize the future!

WHO: High School Students in the U.S.
WHEN: Fall Semester Projects
WHERE: Online resources & submissions

- May 8, 2017 – First Informational Webinar for Educators
- Jul 8, 2017 – Registration Opens
- Nov 25, 2017 – Initial Submissions Due
- Dec 20, 2017 – Finalists Announced
- Feb 25-26, 2018 – Final Event and Awards

$55,000 in college scholarships from The Actuarial Foundation!

Mentorship from leading actuaries across the country.

Travel to New York City for finalist presentations.

Online Professional Development support for educators.

Learn more, get the Educator's Guide & signup for an informational webinar at:

www.mtfchallenge.org

